Welcome to our new instructors!

Ms. Zoie is a first-year teacher at Superstars. She teaches a variety of classes on Wednesday and Thursday nights. When she is not teaching dance, she is teaching in the classroom as a special education teacher. Her journey in dance began at the age of 5 with Superstars, and now, as a dance instructor, it feels like a full-circle moment to come back to the art that shaped her childhood. Whether she's guiding students through special education or choreographing routines, she believes in the transformative power of learning, movement, and creativity. Her goal is to inspire students of all abilities to discover their potential and express themselves through dance.

ZOIE

Ms. Emily started dancing at Norwalk Superstars when she was 3 years old. She participated in tumbling, tap, jazz, hip hop and baton for many years. Ms. Emily is also trained in competitive cheer and tumbling. On the side, she is the owner of a bakery called Cookiecopia Co. and a mother to 2 children. She is so excited to join the Superstars family this year!

EMILY

Ms. Kelsy started dancing at the age of 2, tumbling at the age of 3, twirling baton at the age of 9 and cheering at the age of 11. She enjoyed competing with her teams in each, as well as competing as a soloist. Kelsy is a national champion with her former dance and baton teams, a national champion soloist in baton, as well as a 2-time junior Olympic gold medalist for baton. Kelsy graduated from DMACC with an AA degree and Grand View University with a Bachelors in Psychology. While attending GUV she was a part of the dance team and often performed fire baton routines at football games. Kelsy lives in Osceola and loves spending time with her husband Darin and their daughter Riverleigh, along with their 3 dogs Freya, Chloe and Trixie, as well as her horse Rio.
