Ms. Eliana grew up in Adel, Iowa, and has done dance and cheer from the age of 5. She danced all through high school on the ADM Dance Team, and she is now part of the Central College Dance Team. At Central she studies Kinesiology with hopes to become a physical therapist. Eliana loves working with kids and is so excited to share her passion for dance in a fun, positive environment!

Eliana

Ms. Rianna has danced most of her life (roughly 14 years). She grew up dancing in a studio where she was taught jazz, tap, clog, hip hop, and musical theatre. When my time can to go to high school I was on the North Union High School's dance team for 4 years. After high school, she went on to dance at Iowa Central CC (GO TRITONS!). Ms. Rianna was a captain and a National Hip Hop Champion in 2020! Between high school and college, Ms. Rianna has won 11 Iowa State Dance titles. Overall, she has had so many great dance experiences and she is so excited to share the joy of dance with little ones and all the life lessons that come along with it!

Rianna

Ms. Sydney started taking dance classes when she was 3 years old and began dancing competitively at the age of 8 for Almost Famous Dance, Gymnastics, and Cheer in Monticello, Iowa. In ten years of competitive dance experience, she has performed and competed styles such as pom, lyrical, jazz, contemporary, hip hop and more! Ms. Sydney also taught recreational dance and gymnastics while in high school, led classes and choreographed routines for the Orchesis II dance club at Iowa State University in college, and choreographed a duet for her two younger sisters to compete during the 2024-2025 comp season.
